

Autumn 2015

Week 12

Sithney CP School

What's going on at Sithney

PHEW..... What a week its been! And now
ITS BEGINNING TO FEEL A LOT LIKE
CHRISTMAS
EVERYWHERE YOU GO

Our Ofsted inspection is now complete and early feedback indicates it has all run smoothly. Our wonderful work has been well and truly shared. We now await the report and final judgement, which will be quality assured and released in the next three to six weeks. We look forward to sharing it with you when it arrives.

I must thank the staff and pupils for their exemplary conduct during the inspection. It is a stressful time as everyone works tirelessly to share what we do, but we put on our biggest smile and told our story.

Nativity performance

10th December 2015

Only the secretary and Pre-School will be onsite this day

Parents need to drop pupils off at the Light and Life Centre after 8:30am. They will be there all day and need a packed lunch.

Tickets will be sold on performance day £1 per ticket.

We are also needing lots of children to sing at Helston Farmers Market on the 5th December 9.30am—1.00pm where we will have our craft stall. School staff will not be available at this event. Why not come down and have a look around the stalls, the children can sing while you shop.

We will also be taking part in Christmas Jumper Day on the 18th December.

More details to follow next week

We will be taking year 6 on Tuesday 8th December to sing to elderly within our community.

Which I know our children get great enjoyment out of doing.
